O. box 628, St. Louis, Mo. Send for testimonials. Sold by J. W. McCollum & Co.

A Happy Occasion.

Carter and Margaret Watts entertained thirty-two young folks Saturday afternoon with an Easter egg hunt. They gathered about 3 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Watts and marched—boys on one side, girls on the other—to the shady woods nearby, where they formed a line and at a signal all ran wild, overturning grass roots, bushes, tin cans and everything hunting the eggs. After they had exhausted themselves hunting, they counted to see who had found the most, as a little basket containing a pretty white rabbit was the prize. Three of them tied and had to draw for it.

Then such an eating of eggs, after which ice cold lemonade and cakes were served, and games were played until the shades of evening came on, when all bade their little host and hostess goodbye and went home a happy crowd.
